Morrison-Randolph.
The marriage of Aubrey C. Morrison and Miss Crete Randolph, was solemnized at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. F. Randolph, at Salem. President Charles B. Clark, of the Salem college, acted as officiating minister.

Mr. Morrison is a prominent school teacher of the county but at present is a student at Ann Arbor, Mich. Miss Randolph was also a prominent teacher of the county and is an accomplished and talented young woman.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrison left on No. 55 Wednesday evening for Ann Arbor, Mich., where they will reside until Mr. Morrison finished his course.

Mothers' Club Meeting.
The Mothers' Club of Broad Oaks will meet at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. D. Clemans, 121 Buckhannon avenue. All members are urged to be present.

Mothers Club Entertained.
Mrs. F. I. Day and Mrs. William Smith, were hostesses to the Stealey Mother Club in the home of the former Wednesday afternoon. The topic of discussion was "Resolutions for 1916." The Rev. W. M. Slaughter gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the subject. The music for the evening was furnished by Mrs. Lyda J. Waters and her daughters.

Misses Ruth and Christine and was enjoyed by all present. At the closing of the meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Henry Hathaway.

Married at Oakland.
Announcement is made that Jefferson H. Knight, a prominent young business man, of Lumberport, and Miss Martha Coyner, of Buckhannon, were quietly married at Oakland, Md., Tuesday morning. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Knight went to their new home at Lumberport, where Mr. Knight is the junior member of the firm of Allen and Knight.

Attractive Card Party.
Notwithstanding the inclement weather a very attractive card party was given by Mrs. David J. Carter, Thursday afternoon, in her home on Meigs avenue, complimentary to her visiting guest, Mrs. John C. Williams, of Steubenville, O. Spring blossoms and flowers with ferns and smilax were charmingly used in the floral decorations of the rooms.

Fourteen tables were arranged for the game of progressive euchre and at 5 o'clock a salad supper, with ices, were served at small tables. Covers were laid for fifty guests.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Furniture Polish.
Equal parts of paraffin oil and turpentine mixed together make a splendid furniture polish. The paraffin oil does not gum like other oils, so you will not be bothered, as is generally the case with other furniture polishes. Take a piece of cheesecloth and put some of this mixture on it, but do not have it dripping wet, just wet enough to take effect on the furniture. Rub the furniture well with this, then take a dry cheesecloth and wipe it off, and the result will be splendid. This takes out all stains, as well as every speck of dust.

Oatmeal Cookies.
One cupful sugar, two thirds cupful lard, two eggs, one-fourth cupful water, one teaspoonful soda, one teaspoonful cinnamon, one cupful chopped raisins, two cupfuls uncooked rolled oats, one and a half cupfuls flour, one half cupful chopped walnuts, if liked. Drop with spoon on greased pans; bake slowly. I do not use nut meats as they are good without.

BUSINESS IS BASED ON CONFIDENCE

A Theory Put Into Practice by Well Known Business Man

J. C. BRADY

"A druggist has many opportunities to make lasting friends of his customers," said Mr. J. C. Brady, popular Rexall Pharmacist of Fall River, Mass. "The very nature of his business draws his confidence for little helpful suggestions on the matter of health. Many people have thanked me for recommending Rexall Remedies as the best relief for constipation and its resultant ills. Put up in dainty candy tablet form, they are pleasant to the taste and make an ideal laxative for the home—for men, women and children alike."

VERDICT OF GUILTY AGAINST NUSBAUM

But if New Trial is Not Granted He Will Appeal to the Higher Courts.

MORGANTOWN, Jan. 20.—Contrary to expectations by those who heard the evidence the jury which had the case of the state against William Nusbaum, a Clarksburg merchant, charged with violating the prohibition law, Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock agreed upon a verdict. Nusbaum was found guilty as charged in the first and second counts of the indictment.

The case was given to the jury at 6:10 o'clock Tuesday evening. The jury was then adjourned for the night and began its deliberations Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. At 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the jury came into the court room and at its request Judge Sturgiss read a second time the instructions he had given it on the preceding evening. The jury then returned to its room and after a half's hour deliberation returned its verdict of guilty. It is said that previous to that time the jury had been equally divided on a verdict of guilty and acquittal.

Counsel for the defense at once moved to set aside the verdict as contrary to the law and the evidence and this motion will be argued at a later date. In case the motion is overruled and Nusbaum is sentenced immediate steps will be taken for an
